21st ANNUAL FAMILY CAFÉ
HYATT REGENCY ORLANDO

FEATURING THE GOVERNOR’S SUMMIT ON DISABILITIES

JUNE 7-9, 2019 ♦ ORLANDO, FLORIDA
It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 21st Annual Family Café. It is my hope that while attending this conference, individuals with disabilities and their loved ones will connect with other families. The Café offers a wide variety of public and private resources that may be of benefit to you.

We want all Floridians to have the opportunity to go to work, including those with unique disabilities. I have recommended, and the Legislature is supporting, funding to continue the Employment Enhancement Program to provide on-the-job training and internships to people with different abilities to help them learn job skills so they are able to land a permanent position in the future.

Florida is proud of the contributions men and women with disabilities make to enhance our communities and ensure our success. We are thankful for the Agency for Persons with Disabilities and other state organizations that are committed to making sure Floridians with disabilities have the support they need to thrive. As Governor, individuals with disabilities will always have my support.

Best wishes for a successful Family Café!

Sincerely,
Dear Family Café Attendees,

The Annual Family Café is a three-day statewide event that has been meeting the need for information and networking among people with disabilities and/or special health care needs and their families in Florida since 1998. The Family Café Planning Committee, which is comprised of self-advocates, family members, fellow nonprofits and state agency partners, plays a central role in planning the Annual Family Café. It is our mission to provide you and your family with an opportunity for Collaboration, Advocacy, Friendship and Empowerment in a family-centered environment!

We have done our best to assemble an exciting, engaging event this year, and we think you will be impressed with the wide array of information and activities we've brought together. Our agenda of breakout sessions features over 200 sessions, with many of them organized into “tracks” by subject area. They include Advocacy, Assistive Technology, Birth through Age Five, Disaster Preparedness, Employment, Mental Health, Military Families, Recreation, Smart Money, Youth, and our newest addition, Dads. To help you navigate the tracked sessions, we’ve included a “track index” in the front of the program that lists every session in a given track and tells you what page to turn to for its description. No matter what type of disability you experience, what stage of life you’re in, or what disability topic interests you, you are sure to find sessions that speak to your needs.

We also have a series of keynotes that address essential topics in the disability community. On Friday, we are pleased to welcome a true giant of the disability rights movement, Judy Heumann. She will share her experience bringing landmark legislation like the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and the Americans with Disability Act (ADA) into being. Saturday will feature executive producer and co-star of TLC’s hit television show The Little Couple, Bill Klein. He will discuss self-esteem, confidence building, introspection, the value of constructive criticism, and overcoming obstacles. On Sunday, the final keynote will feature Dave Clark and Doug Cornfield. They will share the story of Dave’s career as a baseball player with a disability, as well as the story of how a simple act of kindness can change a life, as told in their children’s book, A Pound of Kindness.

In addition to our series of keynotes, The Annual Family Café will once again include The Annual Governor’s Summit on Disabilities. The Family Café has always encouraged Floridians with disabilities and their families to develop relationships with their elected representatives and get involved in the policy-making process. The Governor’s Summit on Disabilities creates a space to make that happen, with Governor Ron DeSantis, Senate President Bill Galvano, and state agency representatives sharing their vision for Floridians with disabilities, and hearing directly from attendees about their needs and concerns. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity!

When you’re not in a session, enjoying a keynote, or taking part in the Governor’s Summit, please take some time to visit the dozens of booths in our Exhibit Hall, which feature a wide array of organizations, including a host of self-advocate owned and operated Micro-Enterprises. We also encourage you to enjoy the adaptive recreation activities provided by our friends at the Florida Disabled Outdoors Association, visit the FAAST Assistive Technology Room, and view the great self-advocate performances throughout the weekend.

It’s been our great pleasure and honor to create a truly unique space for people with disabilities and their families at The Annual Family Café for the past two decades, and we are excited to have you on hand as we celebrate our 21st birthday. We sincerely hope that your participation in The 21st Annual Family Café leaves you feeling informed, educated and empowered. As always, please let us know if there is anything we can do to serve you better!

Yours,
The Family Café Planning Committee

Dear Annual Family Café Attendee:

Welcome to the 21st Annual Family Café and Governor's Summit on Disabilities. On behalf of the Florida Agency for Persons with Disabilities, I encourage you to take advantage of the wonderful educational and networking opportunities provided at this conference.

Florida's Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD) is committed to helping people with developmental disabilities live, learn, and work in their communities. The agency serves more than 55,000 people with spina bifida, autism, intellectual disabilities, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, Phelan-McDermid syndrome, and Prader-Willi syndrome.

The Family Café offers people with disabilities and their families a welcoming environment to educate themselves about organizations and resources that are available in Florida. Families and organizations must work together to find solutions to meet the diversity of needs that each individual faces. APD has an online Resource Directory at APDcares.org which may offer community solutions when government resources are not available. We welcome you to stop by the APD booth while attending the conference for additional information.

Throughout this conference, you will have the chance to share your challenges, experiences, and solutions. There will be presenters, providers, exhibitors, and other family members that will have valuable information to benefit you, so make the most of the educational atmosphere at this conference. Again, I hope you enjoy your time here!

Sincerely,

Barbara Palmer
Director
Dear Conference Attendees:

The Florida Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) welcomes you to the 21st Annual Family Café Conference. This conference promises to be another wonderful opportunity for you to learn about the many services available from a wide range of providers and stakeholders for individuals with disabilities and their families.

VR is a federal/state program that works with individuals who have physical or mental disabilities to help them get or keep a job. VR is the state's employment agency for individuals with disabilities, and we are committed to helping them find meaningful careers.

If you are interested in employment, our staff will be making presentations throughout the conference about the different programs VR offers, including our Pre-Employment Transition Services, Supported Employment, and Ticket to Work through the Social Security Administration. We also have a booth where you can talk to a VR counselor and learn more about how VR can assist you with your employment goal.

I hope you enjoy the conference and take advantage of the information, activities and friendship available to you.

Sincerely,

Alison Flanagan, MBC, CRC

Welcome to the 21st Annual Family Café!

As the new Secretary for the Department of Children and Families, I am excited to be a part of the Family Café. Judy Heumann is a major figure in disability rights history. She is a lifelong advocate for the rights of disabled people, an internationally recognized leader in the disability rights community, and a central figure in making the world more accessible and inclusive for individuals with disabilities.

Her life as a disability advocate began in Brooklyn, NY in 1949, when she contracted polio and began to experience discrimination, being told that she could not attend school because she was a “fire hazard.” Judy determined that she, working in collaboration with other disabled people, had to play an increasing advocacy role as she and others experienced continuous discrimination because of their disabilities.

After graduating from Long Island University in 1969, Judy moved to California, where she received her Master’s in Public Health from the University of California at Berkeley. She served as a founding member of the Berkeley Center for Independent Living, the first CIL in the United States, which helped to launch the Independent Living Movement in the US and around the World. In 1982, she cofounded the World Institute on Disability, a think tank run by disabled people focused on research to advance the Independent Living Movement, along with Ed Roberts and Joan Leon.

Over the course of her life, Judy has worked with disabled people’s organizations and governments in the US and around the world to advance the human rights of disabled people. She has played a role in the development and implementation of major legislation, including the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disability Act (ADA), and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. Judy served as the Assistant Secretary for the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services in the Department of Education during the Clinton administration. Judy has also served as the World Bank’s first Advisor on Disability and Development, leading work to expand the Bank’s knowledge and capability to work with governments and civil society on including disability in the global conversation. President Obama appointed Judy as the first Special Advisor for International Disability Rights at the U.S. Department of State, where she served from 2010-2017, and she was also Washington, DC’s first Director for the Department on Disability Services.

She has received numerous awards, including being the first recipient of the Henry B. Betts Award in recognition of efforts to significantly improve the quality of life for people with disabilities, and the Max Starkloff Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Council on Independent Living. As a Senior Fellow at the Ford Foundation, she is currently working to help advance the inclusion of disability in the Foundation’s work, and is leading a project to advance the inclusion of disabled people in the media.

Judy’s goal in life is to continue to advance the rights and empowerment of ALL disabled people around the world. Please join us for this rare opportunity to hear directly from one of the people that truly changed the world for people with disabilities!

Zero Tolerance: Breaking Down the Wall of Silence

Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Celebration 4

The Zero Tolerance Initiative represents an aggressive multi-pronged approach to dealing with the problem of abuse, neglect, and exploitation committed against individuals with developmental disabilities; using national research to determine ways to improve the initiative, training, monitoring and quality assurance activities, as well as propose changes to operating procedures and processes within the agency. Individuals with developmental disabilities are at a higher risk of being victims of abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation. Awareness and understanding are key in helping to develop and implement preventative measures to protect the health, safety, and wellbeing of these very vulnerable individuals. This presentation will provide an overview of the Agency for Persons with Disabilities’ Zero Tolerance Initiative to End Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation against individuals living with disabilities.

Going to College and Excelling as a Student with a Disability
Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Celebration 15

Selecting a university, with or without a disability, is one of the most significant decisions that a young person will make. To help with this decision-making process attendees will learn how to become “otherwise qualified” to attend and to thrive in a college environment. Specifically, we will examine what types of challenges a person with a disability might encounter with regards to their university experience: housing, independent living, academic accommodations, experiential learning, and student life challenges. We will also highlight how some current students at Florida State University (FSU) are excelling and overcoming architectural, programmatic, communication, and attitudinal barriers within a preeminent institution.

In most advocacy training courses and sessions, I am certain that they teach the basics. I believe that there is more to learn beyond this basic knowledge. Using these fundamental points, I will expand and go further in depth on these points. Even going step by step on some of the very tools that advocates use. Also discussed will be defining the very lingo and terms that advocates use daily. I want to be able to go past glancing and expand on the tools and skills necessary. I truly think that knowing these skills and terms can improve an advocate and make them more effective for change.

Divorce Law and Autism
Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Bayhill 18

When the parents of a child with autism divorce, autism in the child and one or more of the parents involved can significantly impact many of the decisions made concerning separation, divorce, custody, and child support. A parent’s responsibility to support an autistic child may extend beyond the age of 18. This presentation will discuss how courts often focus on parental capacity and the impact of that capacity on the parent’s ability to take advantage of available services for their child.

Why We Use: Parenting During Addiction
Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Bayhill 19

We often hear stories surrounding the negative effects of parental substance abuse on children. These stories are often followed by questions such as “How could they be more concerned with using drugs than their own children?” Parents with addictions often feel guilt, shame, and insecurity of their fitness to parent. So, why do they continue to use? This presentation will delve into the factors of addiction, its effect on parenting, and the often-unaddressed perspective of those who parent during active addiction. The audience will gain a deeper understanding of the parent’s perspective, hear communication techniques that will open the lines of communication, and empower those with substance use disorders, and distinguish common myths from facts.

“It’s Not Personal, It’s Autism!” My Personal Advocacy Journey

Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Bayhill 20

Nothing can prepare you for being a parent of a child with a disability. The paperwork, the doctors’ appointments, the meetings, the medications, the schools, the teachers, the therapists . . . it can make you feel like you have lost control of your life! If you are tired of feeling helpless and are looking for effective ways to regain control of your life, learn from this story. From living as a single mom of twins with autism on food stamps in HUD housing to Executive Director of the Autism Society of Florida, Jill Morrison shares her journey using humor, personal stories, and effective practical techniques she developed on a shoestring budget. This session will provide techniques and resources to help at IEP meetings, at school, and at home. These tools, tips, and techniques represent seventeen years of Jill’s personal successes and failures in all these areas, and can help parents regardless of their child’s diagnosis. These simple, inexpensive, real-life solutions will help improve communication, reduce stress, and help you train your child to become a stronger self-advocate. It doesn’t matter where you come from, what your income level is, or how much education you have: all you need is the desire to do the best you can for your child.

LIFE: Being an Active Part of the Community!

Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Bayhill 25

Self-determination is the right to live, work, play, retire, and die in the community of our choice with dignity. Shortly after Congress passed the ADA in 1989, I learned about the principles of the self-determination movement. I live my life by these five principals and want to teach others to live by this same philosophy. It allows me to live an independent life, in my own house, as a self-employed individual.

CBD and the Web Spun by Charlotte

Friday, June 7
1:30-2:30
Bayhill 27

The CNN documentary “Weed” sparked worldwide interest in the use of marijuana for seizures. It told the story of a young girl in Colorado with Dravet Syndrome suffering with up to 300 seizures a week. She had a miraculous response to a form of medical marijuana that was high in cannabidiol (CBD) and low in Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC). People long suffering with epilepsy and/or family members watched this on TV and wanted this miracle. But it was not legal in all states and still illegal federally. This sparked families to move to states where medical marijuana was legal; others sought to change state laws, and they did.
Doctors were not comfortable using a drug that had not been studied. There were some pharmaceutical companies involved in studying CBD, but people weren’t willing to wait for the rigorous process it takes for a drug to come to market. There was much chatter over the internet and people began to order it online or get it at a local dispensary if it was legal in their state.

Currently there are at least 2 pharmaceutical companies studying CBD in epilepsy and Greenwich Pharma has a product on the market, Epidiolex, approved for treating seizures associated with Dravet Syndrome and Lennox-Gastaut syndrome.

This talk will briefly describe the history of medical marijuana and state laws. It will look at some of the issues surrounding obtaining marijuana at a dispensary or online. It will explain the composition of the plant and how it affects seizures. It will also talk about what has been learned from the clinical trials and what is next.

This leaves very little time for children to build imagination and self-talk. The best way to ensure good health in adulthood is for teens, as developmentally able, to understand their health needs and become active participants in health care decision-making. We will discuss the importance of preparation for health care transition; describe how providers, teachers, and caregivers can help youth become more independent in managing their own care; and demonstrate tools and resources that can assist in the process.

Divorce Law and Autism
Friday, June 7
3:00-4:00
Bayhill 18

When the parents of a child with autism divorce, autism in the child and one or more of the parents involved can significantly impact many of the decisions made concerning separation, divorce, custody, and child support. A parent’s responsibility to support an autistic child may extend beyond the age of 18. This presentation will discuss how courts often focus on parental capacity and the impact of that capacity on the parent’s ability to take advantage of available services for their child.

Camp as Respite
Friday, June 7
3:00-4:00
Bayhill 22

Respite is an important aspect of parenting a child with a disability. Caregivers need rest and children need the opportunity to thrive in environments away from their primary home. Camping programs provide that respite experience for caregivers and children without the often experienced caregiver feelings of guilt associated with saying “I need a break.” Respite provides the opportunity for children (and adults) to engage in adaptive activities in a safe environment, make new friends, and have shared experiences with their peers. Respite provides caregivers the chance to relax and focus on self-care techniques that may feel impossible much of the time.

Taking Care of the Caregiver
Friday, June 7
3:00-4:00
Bayhill 23

Stress is a fact of life, but being stressed out is not. Caregiver stress occurs when the responsibilities and challenges of caring for a loved one places significant stress on the family caregiver. These stresses can build up to actually cause caregiver distress or stress overload. This leaves the caregiver susceptible to other health risks, such as high blood pressure, diabetes, stroke, and even heart disease. We will offer a host of practical ideas and simple solutions to help you deal with stress, and live a happier, healthier, fuller life. Live your best life now!

Life Beyond High School: Postsecondary Education Programs for Students with Intellectual Disabilities
Friday, June 7
3:00-4:00
Bayhill 27

Planning for life after high school is what transition planning is all about. Successful adult outcomes depend on planning for both secondary and postsecondary education. For students with intellectual disabilities, the Florida Postsecondary Comprehensive Transition Program (FPCTP) provides resources and supports to postsecondary programs. The Florida Postsecondary Comprehensive Transition Program Act created the Florida Center for Students with Unique Abilities at the University of Central Florida and charged them with increasing the number of postsecondary opportunities throughout Florida. The act also provides student scholarships to attend approved programs as well as start-up and enhancement grants to support programs development.

This presentation will outline and highlight steps you can take to acquire behavioral supports for your child, such as Functional Behavioral Assessments and Positive Behavioral Intervention Plans. In addition, this presentation will include scenarios and strategies, relevant case law, regulations, and state and federal laws that govern the process and provide procedural safeguards/due process for students with disabilities to afford them access to a free appropriate public education. Winning Them Over: Processes for Advocating for People with Differences
4:30-5:30
Celebration 13

When health care workers, educators, employers, and other people fail to speak directly to our family members with differences, are we relieved, frustrated, belligerent? Our first responses may be justifiable, but are they helpful? And what happens when we cannot be there to advocate for family members and others with differences? This interactive workshop will help parents, caregivers, and professionals appreciate the process by which we may win over other people so that they appreciate the capacity of individuals with differences. And by so doing we can help people with differences learn to be self-advocates that gain respect and admiration.

Handwriting and Disability: Perspectives from the Inside

Friday, June 7
4:30-5:30
Bayhill 23

Prepare for surprises! Adults with one or more neurological disabilities share their “lives with handwriting” — why it still matters to them, what their struggles mastering this skill (including the vexing matter of reading cursive!) were, and which self-remediation strategies empowered them to help themselves and eventually help others with handwriting issues. Their differing perspectives raise questions: How can handwriting instruction become more accessible to all students? When may a program or technique become unintentionally counterproductive? How can methods, styles, and techniques be adapted to each learner, instead of expecting the learner to fit the method?

PLAY BALL! Building an Annual Tradition With Your Child with Special Needs

Friday, June 7
4:30-5:30
Bayhill 26

Let’s face it. Although gender roles in today’s world are often more elastic than in the past, it is still a fact that many dads are so busy with being a breadwinner that is hard for them to be actively involved with their child on a day-to-day basis. But, just like how families often have yearly traditions (annual Christmas party, the yearly spring break trip, the summer at the lake house), dads can build a memorable one-on-one tradition with their child with special needs, one that cements the bond between parent and child and builds lasting memories. In this session last year’s keynote speaker, Steve Browne, will share one such tradition from his experience in raising a child with special needs, and how he developed an annual baseball spring-training trip with his daughter that is now going on fifteen years. He will then lead a discussion on how dads can start to develop and nourish such traditions with their own special needs children.

Introduction to Discrimination Against People with Disabilities

Friday, June 7
4:30-5:30
Bayhill 27

People with disabilities are subject to discrimination in all areas of life. Additionally, solutions are either little-known or hard to obtain. This seminar is designed to assist individuals with disabilities and their families with self-advocacy. This session will briefly cover your rights, where and how a person with a disability may be discriminated against — education, housing, employment, etc. — what remedies are available, and how to access them.

If parents knew then what they know now, it would have made the whole process easier as it relates to their loved one or self-advocates with disabilities. The goal of this session is to target parents and provide parent-to-parent information exchange on certain topics.

Narcolepsy and Idiopathic Hypersomnia (IH): Coping Skills and Treatment Options
Friday, June 7
4:30-5:30
Bayhill 31

Narcolepsy is a serious life-long disorder caused by the brain’s inability to regulate sleep-wake cycles. It is almost always caused by a lack of a neurotransmitter called hypocretin. Having Narcolepsy or IH, you may need to learn coping skills and follow the latest treatment options to 1.) Minimize Excessive Daytime Sleepiness (EDS); 2.) Reduce overwhelming urges to sleep; and 3.) Improve concentration and deficits in memory. Come and share your experiences and learn more about these sleep disorders, which have no medical or mental disorder, and account for the symptoms that affect 1 in 2000 people.

Surviving Accidental Submersion (SACS) Aquatic Therapy Can Help Improve Paralysis
Friday, June 7
4:30-5:30
Quiet Pool

Surviving Accidental Submersion (SACS) Aquatic Therapy can help improve paralysis. Rehabilitation in an aquatic environment provides patients with a unique medium for neuromuscular reeducation and strengthening for children with medical and orthopedic conditions, as well as neurological disorders that may reduce the ability to bear weight on the legs, tolerate impact exercise on land, or move against the forces of gravity. We create a special swim program that is designed to provide an educational and therapeutic environment for children with special needs. Surviving Accidentally Clothed Submersion (SACS) is incorporated in all of these important goals.

5:30 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. Brazilian Voices, Foyer
6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The 21st Annual Governor’s Summit on Disabilities, Plaza International Ballroom
Join us for The 21st Annual Governor’s Summit on Disabilities, featuring Governor Ron DeSantis. Beginning with The 1st Annual Family Café in June of 1999, The Family Café has upheld the tradition of creating a space where our attendees can connect with the elected officials and policymakers whose actions so profoundly impact individuals with disabilities and their families.

The Annual Governor’s Summit on Disabilities presents a unique opportunity to hear from leaders of both the Executive and Legislative branches of our state government, as well as representatives of multiple State Agencies that serve people with disabilities in our state. We are very proud to continue the practice of connecting Floridians with disabilities with decision makers at the highest level of state government, to foster a productive dialogue about the issues facing Floridians with disabilities, and the impact public policy has on their daily lives.

The Family Café is pleased to welcome Governor Ron DeSantis. Governor DeSantis was elected to office in 2018, and is setting a new course for disability policy in our state. He will be joined by leaders from State Agencies that serve Floridians with disabilities. Together, they will share their vision for our state’s service delivery system, and their thoughts on building more inclusive, accessible communities throughout Florida.
The Summit will also include Senate President Bill Galvano. Senator Galvano was first elected to the State Senate in 2012, after serving in the Florida House from 2002 through 2010. He is a long-time supporter of The Family Café, having attended our event for over a decade, and a champion for Floridians with disabilities in Tallahassee. As the leader of the upper house of Florida’s legislature, Senator Galvano has unique insight into legislative priorities and processes. Senator Galvano will share the legislative perspective on disability issues.

The 21st Annual Governor’s Summit on Disabilities promises to be both informative and memorable. The Family Café is committed to helping policy makers to understand what daily life is like for the people with disabilities and families that they serve, and to giving our attendees a chance to better understand the policy making process by hearing from the Governor, Legislators and State Agency representatives directly. We sincerely hope you take advantage of this opportunity to have your voice heard at The 21st Annual Summit on Disabilities!

The 21st Annual Summit on Disabilities will feature a musical performance by Staar Fields. She is a singer/songwriter, and the parent of a child with autism, and she is excited to spread her message of hope and encouragement with everyone at The Family Café. For more information, visit staarfields.com
Join us for the Saturday keynote with the executive producer and co-star of TLC's hit television show The Little Couple, Bill Klein. Bill is a disability advocate, and a serial entrepreneur who has grown successful businesses in healthcare and retail. He is also a bona fide inventor, with a patent in the pet product space, and the author of Think Big: Overcoming Obstacles with Optimism.

Bill attributes his success to his upbringing, his ultra-supportive spouse, tenacity, and humor. Business successes aside, Bill’s crowning achievement is becoming a parent to the most amazing children in the world, Will and Zoey. Today, Bill and his family live in St. Petersburg, FL. He manages his businesses with regular travel to Houston and China and a lot of conference calls, while enjoying life closer to the water and extended family.

His inspirational talk will focus on self-esteem, confidence building, introspection, and the value of constructive criticism (and will also include a lot of humor along the way). Sharing stories from his life, Bill will also address career struggles/motivations, relationships, and life on television. He will also share his thoughts on overcoming obstacles along the way.

A limited number of complimentary copies of Think Big: Overcoming Obstacles with Optimism will be distributed at this keynote.

2019 Celebration of Life Ceremony: Honoring Our Loved Ones
Saturday, June 8
11:00-12:30
Blue Spring II

When we lose someone dear to us, we experience deep sadness and even despair, wondering how we will survive. We have longings to know they are fine and to know we were good enough, in their eyes. The healing process we embark upon continues throughout our lives. For this reason, our Celebration of Life Ceremony is for anyone who has lost a loved one, at any time. We believe that by coming together in the Family Café community, where the common bond of disability unites us in a special way, a profound healing occurs.

In this year’s Celebration of Life Ceremony, you will remember the gifts and contributions of your loved one — and will include those on Family Café’s Web of Life, which represents the eternal interconnectedness of all that is. Through a guided meditation, you will be invited to let go of regrets and receive the gift of Light and Love. Dr. Paula Petry will share about the loss of her daughter, Alexandra, and what helped her through her deep grief. Accompanying Paula is sound healer, Jeff Deen and the internationally renowned female vocalists, Brazilian Voices. Your remembrance will be represented in a sand dollar which you will take with you.

Paula Petry, Ph.D. spent many years in academia and engaged in parent support and disability public policy. With her daughter’s death and subsequent divorce in 1996, she pursued an intuitive healing arts path that has given her unique insights and wisdom that she shares with loving kindness. She is the author of the upcoming book, News From Oz: A Mother’s Journey Through Grief Toward Wholeness.

Reducing Disparities in Accessing Social and Health Care Services for Adults with Down Syndrome at Risk for Alzheimer’s Disease
Saturday, June 8
11:00-12:00
Bayhill 18

The adult Down syndrome population is at high risk for early onset of Alzheimer’s disease, complicated by overlapping health conditions. Increasing concerns for these individuals and their caregiver parents are the barriers in accessing appropriate health care. These barriers include appropriate assessment of dementia; recognition of health problems; the need for cross network home and community based services supporting the needs of the families; and most importantly, the lack of awareness of these concerns by the social, health, and medical care communities. These all place stress on the aging parents who are caregivers. This presentation will review some of the barriers to accessing appropriate social and healthcare and services related to dementia and will provide some simple solutions for parents to reduce these barriers.

The opioid crisis has brought an awareness through a lens that we have not looked through before as a society. Substance abuse and mental health are at the forefront and affecting more families than ever before. Recovery is possible. Ending the stigma is essential. This presentation will provide an overview as to how the opioid crisis in the state of Florida is bringing new resources to our communities. Florida is on the second grant provided through the federal government to assist in combating opioid use to save lives. Through each of the grants, each DCF region across the state has been able to hire behavioral health consultants and certified peer recovery specialists. This presentation will discuss the role of a behavioral health consultant and how they are assisting child welfare in learning about opiates and medication assisted treatment programs, as well as how the peer with true lived experience can make a difference in the lives of those in recovery living in our community. Further detail will be given as to how peers with lived experience are able to be certified through the Florida Certification Board as well as types of work and advocacy that peers are able to obtain (those in recovery from substance abuse and/or mental health as well as family members). These grant activities are going on around the state of Florida as well as numerous areas across the country. However, we feel that in the NW region of Florida we are moving forward promptly through collaborations with Dept of Corrections, the Florida Peer Coalition, churches and other providers in the community. Our staff is working on true warm handoffs for individuals reentering the community from jails and state hospitals in a way that is assisting with family support, jobs, housing and other resources which are necessary for recovery. Engaging the family in an individual’s recovery is key to success.

Supporting Students Toward Good Health: Health Literacy and Transition
Saturday, June 8
1:00-2:00
Celebration 15

When youth/young adults understand and engage in their own health care, they have a greater opportunity to thrive. Families and professionals can do much to help students advance in this often-overlooked and critical part of transition, health literacy learning and healthcare transition planning, through use of current research, resources, and evidence-based practices. The American Academy of Pediatrics and related organizations recognize healthcare literacy and transition as critical concerns, and research shows most youth are unprepared for transfer to adult healthcare, medical practices lack processes to help young people increase health literacy and transition skills, and education systems seldom bring health literacy and transition into the planning process. Come learn what you can do — early and often — to support health literacy and transition.

“Let’s Talk” about Augmentative Alternative Communication (AAC)

June 8
1:00-2:00
Rainbow Spring I

Join me for a discussion about the continuum of Augmentative Alternative Communication systems available in the market today and the role of the family in implementation. The role of the communication partner and strategies for Aided Language, Vocabulary Selection, Core Vocabulary Generalization of AAC intervention outside of the school/therapy environment is critical to provide the child with sufficient opportunities for the development of receptive and expressive communication skills. We will discuss the role of the communication partner/parent and tips to assist in implementation. Approximately 78% of the words we use daily are drawn from a core of fewer than 250 words that makes up more than ¾ of what adults and children actually say. Focusing on the words that are used most frequently in communication dramatically increases opportunities for learning and use when compared to approaches that focus on more concrete but less frequently used words.

Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Celebration 5

Do you and your spouse or significant other find yourselves moving fast with no time to slow down? Between doctor visits, therapy appointments, and hospital stays, having children with special needs often feels like being on a roller coaster! There are so many twists and turns—some foreseeable, and some not. Amidst the chaos and noise accompanied with being a caregiver, how many times do we forget to take care of one another? Occasionally, we need to be reminded to SLOW DOWN! However, slowing down does not mean that we are stopping, but rather it allows us room to get focused. So, instead of giving 10 percent of ourselves to 10 different things, we can slow down and focus in order to give just one thing 100 percent!

Rest Quest
Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Celebration 16

Are you exhausted? Drained? Depleted? Our journey as a caregiver can certainly consume our physical, mental, and emotional strength. Facing a wide-range of duties and responsibilities caring for our loved one while managing our own personal lives can simply be overwhelming. We can become stressed and dangerously diminished in our capacity to be our best. Eventually, this can lead to caregiver burnout — and when you’re burned out it’s hard to look after someone else. That’s why living life through a perspective of REST is not a luxury, but a necessity! Linda, a caregiver herself, will share REST QUEST: a daily intentional search to be renewed, restored, and revitalized. Using personal experiences and practical ways we will explore how we can experience REST in all realms of our daily lives. We will learn ways to REST our bodies, recharge and recover our strength, and feel replenished for the journey ahead of us. Come and REST a while. You owe it to yourself!

ABC’s of Special Needs Trusts and Guardian Advocacy
Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Bayhill 21

This informative workshop is designed for parents, guardians, and advocates of individuals with special needs. Attorneys Sarah AuMiller and Peggy Hoyt will discuss the importance of legal and estate planning for families with special needs. A family member with special needs creates an added layer of complexity to estate planning—the need for advanced trust—both first party and third party trusts, which are important for protecting government benefit eligibility and providing lifetime protection for vulnerable individuals. We will also explore both guardianship and guardian advocacy—when each is appropriate and why they are essential for the protection of your loved ones.

Get the Skills to Land your First Job or Advance in your Current Job
Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Bayhill 24

Many of us think of skills as special abilities that are needed to complete a job, such as a pilot’s ability to fly a plane, or a mechanic’s ability to repair a car. However, many of the most important skills needed in today’s workplace are those that help us work well with others, manage time and resources, or adapt to change. These are “soft skills,” and this workshop will review the importance of having those essential soft skills to get and keep a job.

So, How Much Does It Pay? Putting Your Child with Special Needs to Work
Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Bayhill 26

It has been a long-standing rule of parenting that encouraging kids to work at part-time jobs helps with their development. From learning responsibility and a good work ethic, to the pride that comes from earning your own money, teenagers that work at part-time jobs not only learn valuable skills regarding dependability and performance, but also feel a greater sense of self-worth at an early age. But what about the child with special needs? Many parents do not even consider the possibility with their children with special needs. But with some creativity and accommodation many teenagers with special needs could be put to the test with jobs created for them that deliver the same values and sense of self-worth. In this session Steve Browne will share his story of developing a part-time job for his teenage child with special needs, and what it taught her about life in the real world. He will then lead a discussion on how you can possibly do the same for your child.

The Experience of Being Diagnosed with ASD in Adulthood
Saturday, June 8
2:30-3:30
Bayhill 28

This presentation will combine research and anecdotal commentary on why autism is underdiagnosed in females — exploring mental health consequences. The speaker will be discussing the necessity of inclusion, the harm of masking, and the importance of living authentically as an Autistic person. It’s important to recognize Autistic narratives as a vital source of information to all, regardless of “severity,” including a how-to of being a proper ally. This includes education on criteria of the necessary assumption of full competence, and critique of society’s assumption of disability functioning at first glance. The divide in the Autism community will be revealed and critiqued.

Engaging learning environments often provide students multiple opportunities for the perception and comprehension of academic content. One such method is to pair models or manipulatives with text, audio, or video. For example, tactile representations from a literature selection, math manipulatives, hands-on science labs, or even historical artifacts from a social studies class. This is not always possible as at some point physical representations of objects may be too big, too small, too fragile, or even too dangerous. Join us as we explore 3D printing and how it provides a pathway to make physical representations of almost any conceivable object, concept, or idea accessible to any student.

Surviving Accidental Submersions (SACS) Aquatic Therapy can help improve paralysis. Rehabilitation in an aquatic environment provides patients with a unique medium for neuromuscular reeducation and strengthening for children with medical and orthopedic conditions as well as neurological disorders that may reduce the ability to bear weight on the legs, tolerate impact exercise on land, or move against the forces of gravity. We create a special swim program that is designed to provide an educational and therapeutic environment for children with special needs. Surviving Accidentally Clothes Submersions (SACS) is incorporated in all of these important goals.

Drawn to Water—Understanding the Seriousness of Wandering, Elopement, and Water Safety
Saturday, June 8
4:00-5:00
Bayhill 20

Wandering of children with disabilities is common, dangerous, and puts a tremendous amount of stress on families. In fact, research indicates that nearly 50% of children with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) attempt to wander or elope from a safe, supervised area. Considering that Florida leads the country in childhood deaths related to drowning and that most of these tragedies result from a child disappearing from the watchful eye of a caregiver, it’s vitally important that parents understand the seriousness of the impacts of wandering, elopement, and water hazards and learn the skills necessary to keep their children safe.

When “Appropriate Behavior” is Inappropriate
Saturday, June 8
4:00-5:00

Unexpectedly, individuals whose disabilities affect socialization often report that they have been taught (and required to use) social strategies which impede (rather than further) developmentally appropriate socialization and interaction in a wide variety of contexts. The presenters (disability professionals who themselves have disabilities which affect socialization) use examples and exercises to share their experiences (professional as well as personal) with situations in which the recommended “appropriate behavior” failed to take account of social context and realities which may make standard social skills strategies unusable — or even dangerous — for numerous individuals with disabilities.

Special Needs Dad 365

Saturday, June 8
4:00-5:00
Bayhill 26

Jon and his wife Allison are the proud parents of twin sisters Olivia and Hailey. Olivia, aka Livy, was born with a brain malformation that resulted in epilepsy, cerebral palsy, and other disabilities. Livy’s first seizure occurred only hours after birth. She spent the first nine months of her life at All Children’s Hospital in St. Petersburg, Boston Children’s Hospital, and the Suncoast Hospice House in Largo.

As a result of their family’s experiences, Jon and Allison founded “Livy’s Hope,” which was an avenue for them to share their story and connect with other families. It was also a way for them to take control and give back. They created an awareness and fundraising effort called “Lemonade for Livy” and the epilepsy education and empowerment program “Kids Crew” as a means to impact communities across the country. Both are now national campaigns managed by the Epilepsy Foundation. In addition, Livy’s Hope raises money to help fill funding gaps at special needs schools, so students have the chance to live to their fullest potential.

Jon is also an avid writer and routinely shares what it’s like to be a dad to Livy, what she endures, how their family deals with her disabilities, how Hailey has been impacted, and much more on the Livy’s Hope Facebook page and livyshope.com. The Scheinman’s live and breathe their family’s motto “Don’t Give Up. Give Back.” every day. Their philosophy is to persevere in the hardest of times . . . and to never give up hope.

Join Jon in this session as he shares his story, provides some helpful tips and tricks, and describes his perspective and experience as a husband and a father.

The Story of RayAnn Moseley: How One Little Girl Changed the World
Saturday, June 8
4:00-5:00
Bayhill 28

On a typical day at her job as a nurse, Holley Moseley met a small, captivating toddler named RayAnn who would change her life forever. What began as their fairytale of a family knit together by love and adoption quickly became the harrowing tale of Holley and her husband fighting to save their daughter’s life. RayAnn, who had been diagnosed with cerebral palsy and epilepsy at birth, had begun to experience a drastic increase in her seizure activity. As traditional pharmaceuticals stopped working and her condition worsened, Holley and her husband felt like they were out of options for saving their daughter. When they found the miracle they were desperate for in the form of CBD-rich oil, a type of medical cannabis, they soon realized that their story was really just beginning. Told through her experiences as both a nurse and a mother of a medically fragile child, Holley offers insight on the controversial use of medical cannabis as a treatment for sick children. In addition, Holley worked with legislators and was instrumental in the creation and passing of the Compassionate Medical Cannabis Act of 2014 in Florida. She shares her journey on how to advocate for a cause you believe in, even when the odds are stacked against you. Holley’s story will make you laugh and bring you to tears, but most of all it will leave you inspired to believe in the power of hope.

Blind . . . legally blind . . . visually impaired . . . all are scary and devastating words for a parent. Do you know what the federal law stipulates for Braille, orientation and mobility, and more? Purpose and Benefits of Playgroups for Toddlers and their Caregivers

Saturday, June 8
4:00-5:00
Bayhill 33

This presentation will give information on the purpose of playgroups specifically for toddlers and their caregivers. Playgroups can be provided as part of comprehensive early intervention services. Playgroups have the potential to improve child playfulness and support development as well as build parent confidence through education in developmental topics using group play activities. Parents report that playgroups help their children to communicate and be social with other friends, give them ideas for play activities at home that will support their learning, and provide an opportunity to interact and share ideas with other caregivers as well. Parents who attend six playgroup sessions benefit from an increase in the ability to meet the goals they have for their children.

Our goal is to give these dancers a sense of normalcy, to make them feel included and accepted — no matter the differences between us; we still all have a beating heart. Dance is an emotional, creative, and artistic outlet that taps into the minds and bodies and in a way is a therapeutic experience to help maintain or progress their physical abilities and contribute to their mind to body connection.

The keynote presented by Dave Clark and Doug Cornfield will be a journey with incredible life stories that will provide positive insights to challenge, encourage, and enlighten. Dave Clark has traveled the world as a professional baseball player, coach, scout, owner, and broadcaster. He lost the use of his legs to Polio as a child and never walked without the aid of crutches and braces. You will be challenged to hear how determination, persistence, and the support of others made a difference in his life and how he converted the gifts he was given to inspire many by organizing sports camps for children and adults with various challenges.

Doug Cornfield is a father of seven children and an athlete that has competed in the USA and Europe. His fifth child Gideon was born with neither arm developed, so this brings Doug perspective as a parent raising a child with limitations and relatable stories of his own. Doug reached out to Dave when Gideon was just a baby with the intent of gaining insight into how Dave’s parents raised him so that he could learn principles in raising his own son. This journey will show how two men from different sides of a coin have learned from each other and how they have come together to inspire thousands each year through Disability Dream & Do (D3Day) sports camps organized with professional teams.

Doug Cornfield has recently written a children’s book called A Pound of Kindness. This story portrays a real life event when Dave Clark was in first grade. The story teaches how one act of kindness can be remembered for a lifetime. During the keynote you will be entertained and inspired by other true stories that are being converted into children’s books that include relatable characters for those in the disability community. The main character of these stories will have some type of limitation.

Duck Race
9:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., Main Pool
Quack... Quack... May the best rubber ducky win!

Even ducks can participate in active leisure!! These ducks are fierce competitors. One could win you a big prize, and all help out the Florida Disabled Outdoors Association and The Family Café.

Imagine not one, not a dozen, but hundreds of them racing down the water slide towards a finish line where you (and hundreds of other humans like you) cheer on your adopted duck, hoping it will finish first and you win the Big Prize. Prizes include Gatorland passes, a giant floating duck, and more!

Here’s how you can participate: During The Family Café, purchase your little rubber ducks (just like the one in your bathtub) at the Florida Disabled Outdoors Association booth. FDOA will keep the ducks all together and you will be provided with your duck number. At 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, the ducks will be placed at the starting line, and race down to the finish line. If your duck is one of the winners, you will be one of the lucky recipients of an amazing prize. There are only 500 ducks, so don’t miss your chance!!

When we lose someone dear to us, we experience deep sadness and even despair, wondering how we will survive. We have longings to know they are fine and to know we were good enough, in their eyes. The healing process we embark upon continues throughout our lives.

For this reason, our Celebration of Life Ceremony is for anyone who has lost a loved one, at anytime. We believe that by coming together in the Family Cafe community, where the common bond of disability unites us in a special way, a profound healing occurs.

In this year’s Celebration of Life Ceremony, you will remember the gifts and contributions of your loved one – and will include those on Family Cafe’s Web Of Life, which represents the eternal interconnectedness of all that is.

Through a guided meditation, you will be invited to let go of regrets and receive the gift of Light and Love. Dr. Paula Petry will share about the loss of her daughter, Alexandra, and what helped her through her deep grief.

Accompanying Paula is sound healer, Jeff Deen and the international renown female vocalists, Brazilian Voices. Your remembrance will be represented in a sand dollar which you will take with you.

PROGRAM FACILITATOR

Paula Petry, Ph.D. spent many years in academia and engaged in parent support and disability public policy. With her daughter’s death and subsequent divorce in 1996, she pursued an intuitive healing arts path that has given her unique insights and wisdom that she shares with loving kindness. She is the author of the upcoming book, News From Oz: A Mother’s Journey Through Grief Toward Wholeness.
